

Acknowledgements

This research would have been impossible without the moral and emotional support of my parents. I owe special and immeasurable gratitude to my father, Dr. B.D. Singh, who has spent hours, endlessly discussing Partition and political and social issues with me and reviewing and proof reading various drafts of my research.

I would particularly like to thank my Ph.D supervisor, Dr. Prasenjit Das, for his constant support and guidance in accomplishing this work. I owe him tremendous thanks for shepherding me into meticulously fine-tuning my work.

I cannot forget the inspiring influence and the affection that I received from Dr. Tilottama Misra and Dr. Udayon Misra, both former Professors of Dibrugarh University, when I started off with my work. Their blessings have seen this project through.

Thanks are due to Raashi, my niece, who was the resident clerk helping to type huge portions of my manuscript.

I am indebted to the librarians of universities such as Benaras Hindu University, Varanasi, Lucknow University, Lucknow, and Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur, for helping me in accessing material for this research. I owe special thanks to Dr. Gautam Sarma, Assistant Librarian at the Central Library of KKHSOU for his help and guidance.
