

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset of the study, I would like to take the opportunity to extend my heartiest gratitude, gratefulness, appreciation, acknowledge and thank each and every person who has inspired, encouraged, motivated and enlightened me in preparing and completing my study. Without their constant support and believe, it would not be possible for me to complete my study within a stipulated time.

I am greatly indebted to many people, who have helped me in this venture. In the first place, I am deeply indebted to my mentor Dr. Gayatree Goswamee, Professor, Department of Education, Gauhati University, the learned and knowledgeable supervisor for her unfailing guidance, perennial inspiration, constant encouragement and the constructive criticism during the course of this investigation. Being meticulous, hardworking and motherly by nature, my guide has taught me to look beyond what ordinary books had to offer and instead look for what common eyes cannot see. Without her undying faith in me, I perhaps would not have chosen the topic which I had been passionate about.

Next, to my supervisor, I owe greatly to the Academic Dean of K.K.H.S.O.U, Dr. Arupjyoti Choudhury, who has also offered his valuable advice, counselling, constant support and co-operation throughout this venture. For extending support and co-operation in every phase of my work, I would like to express my sincere gratitude and heartiest thanks to all the faculty members and personnel of K.K.H.S.O.U.

My sincere thanks go to all the faculty members of Department of Education, Gauhati University for their encouragement and motivation.

I offer my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Dwipesh Bhagawati, Professor, Deptt. of Psychiatry, Guwahati Medical College, for helping me in choosing the correct rating scale, which later served to be the backbone of my investigation.

Sincere thanks and gratitude offer to Mrs Sunita Seshadri. Asst. Deputy Director of NIPCCD, Guwahati who had been my strongest support throughout my journey and making me feel that I was not alone and giving me confidence that I would be able to finish this project within stipulated time

I would like to offer my heartfelt thanks and sincere gratitude to Dr. Marami Goswami, Associate professor, Head of the Department of Education, Guwahati College for untiring efforts in the completion of the analysis of data and continuous encouragement and motivation throughout the journey.

The head of the institutions, teachers, students and respective parents of the various schools are greatly remembered for the co-operation and good will they have extended to me during the course of data collection of this study. They have helped me a lot by providing relevant information for conducting this research work, which is the soul of this study.

Family plays a vital role towards one's success. My endeavour would not have been a success without their constant physical, mental, moral and emotional support or prayers .Especially my father, late Ugra Nath Goswami who has been my biggest strength even from miles away. My thesis would be incomplete without the special mention of my mother. She has not only provided me a healthy environment but also freed me from some household activities to do my research work. Her affection and moral support have helped me as an inner source of inspiration. I also extend my profound gratitude to my mother in law for her encouragement.

It would be ungrateful if I do not remember some of my well-wishers, my brother in law Dr.Deepjyoti Saikia, Deputy Director, NIPCCD and Dr. Arup Goswami, Asst. professor, Deptt. of MBA, Dibrugarh University. My Sisters Rinku Ba, Pinku Ba, Tinku Ba and Mintu, my friends Gunajit, Sumi, Joydeep Das for their unending love, support, and encouragement.

My 5 years loving daughter Jnanakshi (jiya), is also a great and constant source of inspiration from the very inception of this study. Though she is very small but her tremendous co-operation and support towards me deserve a special mention in this endeavour.

Last but not the least I would like to take the opportunity to offer my deep gratefulness to my husband Mr. Jayanta Chakravarty who is my hidden source of encouragement and inspiration, my friend, philosopher and guide without whose insistence and constant support in each and every step, this study would not have been possible.
